Andrew Neblett, Ph.D.

Andrew was born in Miami Beach, Florida and has lived in Switzerland and many places in the United States. Both sides of his family are very musical and artistic, but it was his mother's side of the family that was very much into natural healing and herbs. Growing up, his mother Elisabeth used herbs and old family traditions to help cure fevers, colds, skin conditions and other illnesses that occurred. This background left its imprint on Andrew and he now continues this tradition today.

Andrew's basis of wellness is the balance of the four bodies-Physical, Mental, Emotional and Spiritual combined with the four minds-Conscious, Subconscious, Cellular Memory, and the Collective Unconscious. To balance these aspects of the human being, different modalities are required. Starting with Hypnosis and Octoenergetics (the healing modality created by Andrew) as a foundation, Andrew uses these additional modalities in his work: Total Body Modification, Process Coaching, Anodyne Imagery, Reiki, Hypnosynergetics, Emotional Freedom Technique, Neuro-Linguistic Programming, Herbology, Aromatherapy, Meridian Therapy and Iridology. He finds and uses the right combination of these modalities for the individual at his office locations in New England and New York State.

Andrew works with all types of health conditions but likes to focus on pain management and emotional issues. He has created the RPM Pain Relief Formula, an essential oils mixture that has had phenomenal results in pain relief and nerve restoration. His company, Synergistic Formulations, can be found at www.rmpainrelief.com.

He also is a certified instructor for Hypnosynergetics and Hypnosis. He teaches adult continuing education classes in Southbury, CT. Currently he is completing his book, "Octoenergetic Balancing- The 4 Body/4 Mind Method of Wellness," due out later this year. He is a member and director of The National Board of Professional & Ethical Standards, The American Board of Hypnotherapy, The Association of Ethical and Professional Hypnotherapists, The British Association of Therapeutical Hypnotists, The Professional Board of Hypnotherapy and The National Guild of Hypnotists.

Andrew performs hypnosis stage shows as Doc Vincent and as part of the Arthur J. and Vincent A. hypnosis team. He speaks on the topics of wellness, stress management, hypnosis, and metaphysics at various functions and locations.

His hobbies include metaphysics, playing lead guitar for the "The Shade Dance Band," The Renaissance, reading, traveling, Egyptology, mythology and the martial arts in which he holds several black belts.

He lives with his wife and son in Middlebury, CT where his wife is a piano teacher and the headquarters for Neblett Hypnosis & Wellness Group, LLC is located.

Workshops/Seminars

Hypnobirthing

Clinical Supervision-Professional Development in the Age of Accountability

This workshop will look at the purpose and practice of clinical supervision. We will explore the tasks and opportunities available through the use of ethical supervision. In this age of responsibility we will look at how supervision can take the practitioner forward in their practice and their professional life, whilst at the same time and primarily focusing on the needs of the clients who come to us.

The workshop will consist of information sharing, exercises and discussion. We will look at the current models in use and see how they apply to our practice. The purpose of the workshop is to help us explore the need for and use of supervision. (Laughter is essential, so make sure you pack your smile.)

Anxiety and Depression

Past Life Regression

Forensics/Age Aggression

How forensics can work in law enforcement and in therapeutic practices.

Moving Through & Beyond Grief

The seven stages of grieving: denial, outward anger, inward anger, guilt, remorse, forgiving the deceased and self, accepting. Coping mechanisms and healing mechanisms. The healing timeline.... It does to exist. Assimilating and integrating belief systems. Raising consciousness into the new belief systems and prevailing-beyond surviving.

Past Lives, A Fifty Year Retrospective-What the Experts Don't Tell You

This talk deals with my personal experience doing past lives over almost 50 years. Of course, hypnosis was more of an avocation for me and I don't have the quantitative experience of many of the experts in the field, but doing past lives is more difficult and generally less productive than the masters would have you believe. An example is that claims are often made of subjects having 20, 30, or more past lives, but in my experience most people begin to mix up past lives after 7 or 8 and they sort of run together after that. This is one of a fair number of comments/criticisms that I will make about the way past lives are presented in the literature as opposed to my personal experience.

Octoenergetics

Octoenergetics is a healing modality that corrects imbalances in the four bodies (physical, mental, emotional and spiritual) and the four minds (conscious, subconscious, cellular memory and collective unconsciousness). Learn how to blend various healing modalities (including hypnosis) into a cohesive whole that will make your success rate soar. Octoenergetics gives the client physical evidence of where the source of the issue (s) is/are and how to correct it/them. If you are a practitioner looking to boost your success rate, Octoenergetics will do it. Do you use multiple modalities now and wish it was easier to know which ones would benefit the client the most? Octoenergetics will give you those answers. Do you use just one or two modalities now and want to expand your toolkit? Octoenergetics will show you what direction to take. Octoenergetics is a very flexible, adaptable healing system that can be used on almost every issue. Break through the walls that are currently stopping your client's success and create permanent, lasting change. WARNING! Bring an open mind. Metaphysics is part of this system as well as physical, testable results. Many tools will be presented and demonstrated with class participation. You will not leave empty handed!!!

Neural Optimisation with Brainwave Stimulation

Neural Optimisation explores the relationship between how we think, and how we optimize our patterns of behaviour and emotional routines. It offers an opportunity to alter or re-engineer the way we function (our in-built neural programs), and it also offers a technology for creating change. ('Neural'- the Human Nervous System-the Brain and the five senses, 'Optimisation' is to make the best and most effective use of.) Our neural system takes external stimuli and represents them to us with a matching set of "internal representations." These form our subjective experiences. Our internal world is made up of the pictures we see in our "mind's eye." It is the conversations, dialogues or arguments we have with ourselves in our thinking. It is our feelings and emotions over which we think we have no control.

The human brain 'functions' as a result of neural activity in the brain, where neurons electrically communicate with each other by sending and receiving millions of signals simultaneously. The culmination of electrical activity of the brain is commonly called a Brain Wave pattern, because of its cyclic, "wave-like" nature.

By observing the brainwave patterns, it is possible to envisage the status of the mind of a person. For example, an anxious person tends to produce a superfluity of high Beta waves when people with conditions such as Attention-Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD) tend to produce a superfluity of slower Alpha/Theta brainwaves. In other words, the brainwaves represent the mental state of a person, and also they can be stimulated to change a person's mental state, and even help treat a variety of mental disorders.

When the brain is presented with a rhythmic stimulus, such as a repetitive frequency pattern for example, through the ears or eyes, the rhythm is reproduced in the brain in the form of electrical impulses. If the rhythm becomes synchronized and consistent, it can start to resemble the natural internal rhythms of the brain or the brainwaves. When this happens, the brain responds by synchronizing its own electric cycles to the same rhythm (commonly called the Frequency Following Response or FFR), thereby facilitating altered states of consciousness and neural re-programming.

The session covers the theoretical and practical aspects of the technique.
